

When we first started the Cedars for the Au Sable project, we thought it would take 200 years before one of our trees ended up in the river as fish cover. With a little help from the summer wind storm of 2015 , it only took 20! This new bit of fish habitat was sighted on the main branch of the Au Sable, near Squirrel Bend below Wakely Bridge.